Executive Summary

Anchorage Wellness Court, a therapeutic court for alcoholic misdemeanants, has been operating for three years under Judge James N. Wannamaker of the Anchorage District Court. Participants enter the 18-month program under a plea agreement that gives them a reduced sentence if they complete the program. During their 18 months in the program they must:

- Stay alcohol and drug free,
- Be monitored for sobriety,
- Attend treatment for their addiction,
- Take naltrexone for the first four months,
- Attend a weekly group for people on naltrexone,
- Attend a weekly workbook based cognitive behavioral group,
- Attend AA,
- Appear before the judge at regular intervals,
- Be rewarded or sanctioned for progress,
- Be employed,
- Pay restitution,
- Pay most of their treatment costs.

As of December 31, 2003, twenty-five participants had completed this rigorous 18-month program and graduated from Wellness Court. (An additional 5 have graduated since January 1, 2004). The Justice Center obtained recidivism data from the Alaska Court System's case management system and the Department of Corrections movement files. The data consisted of all filed arrests, bookings and convictions for the 2001, 2002, and 2003 participants from January 2001 to February 2004. The results are as follows:

*Based on post-graduation convictions.

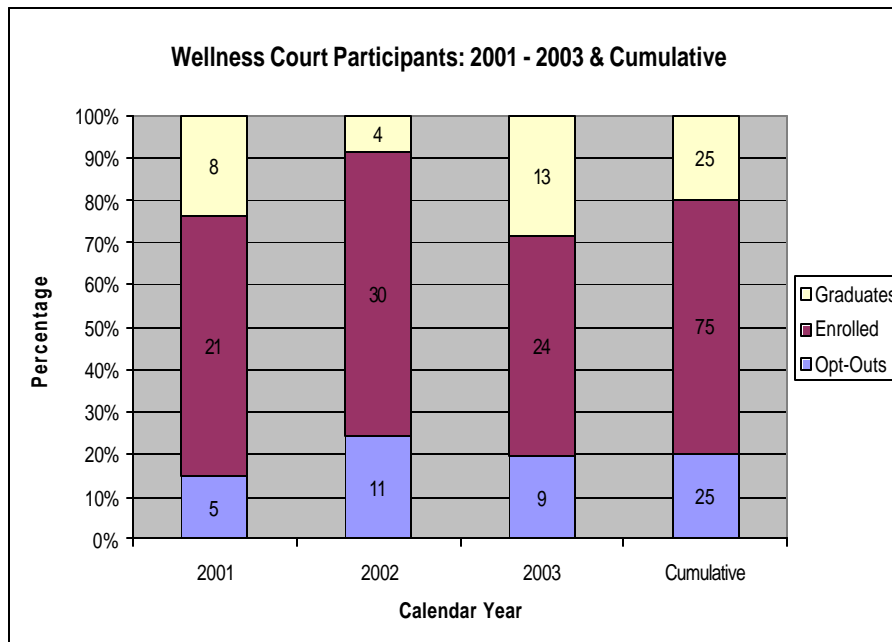

Statistical Summary
