Current Version: SB 115
Contact: Doug Letch, 465-4925

Fact Sheet for: Senate Bill 115

Short Title: NO VOLUNTEER BOARD MEMBER APOC DISCLOSURE

Summary:

- Eliminates the financial disclosure requirement for uncompensated volunteers on some state boards and commissions.

Benefits:

- Encourages Alaskans to volunteer for a state board or commission.
- Reduces the amount of administrative work at the Alaska Public Offices Commission where financial disclosure reports are filed and reviewed.

Background:

- Uncompensated volunteers donate many hours to the state working on boards and commissions. SB 115 makes serving on certain boards and commissions more attractive by eliminating the financial disclosure requirement. The act will take effect immediately upon passage of the bill.
