SPONSOR STATEMENT SENATE BILL 60

“An Act extending the termination date of the Statewide Suicide Prevention Council; and providing for an effective date.”

Suicide is an Alaskan tragedy. On average suicide takes 130 Alaskans every year, nearly twice the national average. With Alaska’s large geography, multiple cultures, and many communities, addressing suicide is a complicated matter.

In 2001, the 22nd Alaska State Legislature enacted legislation that created the Statewide Suicide Prevention Council (SSPC) and tasked it with the mission to reduce suicide through coordination with public and private entities as well as its own initiatives, and broaden suicide awareness. Under Alaska Statute 44.29.350, the Council is charged with advising the legislature and the governor on “...actions that can and should be taken to improve health and wellness throughout the state by reducing suicide and its effect on individuals, families and communities.”

The council is made up of 15 members. In addition to legislative and executive branch members there are nine public members. The public appointments represent a broad spectrum of individuals from rural and urban communities, clergy, youth, and behavioral health community. There is one part-time staff person to coordinate council activities

Among the council’s accomplishments is a recently completed statewide suicide prevention plan. The plan sets up goals and strategies for suicide prevention. Currently, the Council is also in the process of implementing a Follow Back Study and a public awareness campaign. This study consists of voluntary interviews of family and friends; information from the Medical Examiner’s Office; law enforcement agencies; and other records as permitted. The media campaign fulfills the council’s mission to educate Alaskans on suicide and its devastating effects.

The findings from a recently conducted sunset audit recommend the SSPC to continue in its work of research, broadening public awareness, collaborating prevention and intervention efforts around the state and in making recommendations to the Governor and Legislature.

Senate Bill 60 will extend the termination date of the council to 2009 allowing the Statewide Suicide Prevention Council to continue in their mission.
