Weyhrauch Increases Committee Duties

Becomes Vice-Chair of House Ways & Means

(JUNEAU) – Representative Bruce Weyhrauch (R-Juneau) was recently named vice-chairman of the House Ways & Means Committee.

Of his selection for the post, Representative Weyhrauch said, “The Ways & Means Committee is charged with hearing ways to close the fiscal gap. I hope to work with the Committee and House leadership to find ways to promote Alaska’s economic development throughout the state, giving Juneau and other communities a helping hand, while working to close the fiscal gap.”

Rep. Weyhrauch is also Chair of the House State Affairs Committee, Vice-Chair of the Regulatory Review Committee, a member of the House Military & Veteran’s Affairs Committee, the Legislative Council and three Finance Subcommittees.
